

PRESS RELEASE

Its Party Time in the NDC Area

The countdown is on to Hathershaw & Fitton Hill's first ever exciting summer Street Party.

The event will be held on Sunday 17th August from the Honeywell Centre and will spread out onto neighbouring Hadfield Street and Wyndale Road.

The free Street Party which starts at 12.00 Noon until 6.00 pm, is set to be a real family occasion with lots to do, including:- fun and frolics with compere and all round entertainer Andy Lee on the main stage, market stalls hosted by community groups in the NDC area, a showcase of local talent, bouncy castles, face painting, henna tattoo, kiddies roundabouts, circus sensible skills workshop and refreshments.

To round off the occasion there will be a free barbecue on the plaza area at The Honeywell Centre for everyone to enjoy.

The event has been organised by the New Deal for Communities Programme, Places for People who are also celebrating their 10th Anniversary this year and the Wynford Residents' Association.

Sylvia Patterson a member of the Wynford Residents' Association said.

"Everyone is really looking forward to the NDC's first ever Street Party which is a real family occasion. It's been six months in the making and everyone has put a lot of hard work into it. We hope that everyone in the area will come along, support the event and have a great time"

ENDS (Issued 7th August 2008)

You are invited to come along to the Street Party on 17th and take photographs.

For more information contact Cath Carter on 785 3771 or email catherine.carter@oldham.gov.uk