

RENEWAL OF MARRIAGE VOWS

Good Morning/Afternoon everyone, my name is _____ Superintendent Registrar and I would like to welcome you all here today to this special ceremony which _____ and _____ will celebrate their commitment to each other with a renewal of their marriage promises.

It is now _____ years since _____ and _____ were married. Their marriage was a promise of hope. It was a sign that they loved each other, and that they trusted that love to sustain their future together.

One purpose of this ceremony is to celebrate the love between _____ and _____ in which, as family and friends, you can all share.

INSERT ONE

READING

RENEWAL OF VOWS

Today _____ and _____ have invited you all to share in the happiness of their marriage and to witness now as they re-new their promises to each other

1. I _____ re-dedicate myself to my marriage with _____ Whatever the future may hold may our union be part of it. The future is hidden: it will have hopes and disappointments; successes and failures; pleasures and pain. But love can soften every blow. May our love never fail but grow deeper and stronger as the years pass
2. As you come here today to reaffirm your wedding vows and as you reflect back over all the years as husband and wife, do you now reaffirm the vows you took over _____ years ago. If so repeat after me
I _____ do take thee _____ to be my lawful wedded wife/husband.

PREVIOUSLY GIVEN RINGS/OR ETERNITY RINGS

1. This ring is a symbol of our marriage. Continue to wear it as a lasting reminder of my promise to you made _____ year ago and again today.
2. I give you this ring as a symbol/token of the past _____ years we have spent together, may you wear it as a reminder of my promises to you today.

SPEECH (witness or friend who attended their marriage ___ years ago)

READING

CERTIFICATE PRESENTATION

_____ and _____ I now offer you this record as a lasting reminder of this ceremony.

And now as we come to the closing of the ceremony, cherish you love for each other and look to your future with a commitment that grows deeper and stronger as the years pass.

Please offer your congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. _____ and enjoy todays celebration with them.