Equality Objectives Report

Oldham Lifelong Learning Service

24th June 2019
Introduction

Oldham Lifelong Learning Service is committed to delivering excellent service to learners, whilst continuously improving the way we promote equality and celebrate diversity.

As part of our on going commitment, we collect relevant equality information about our learners. This information helps us to understand if we are meeting learner needs and how we can improve the services we offer.

The Equality Act 2010 replaced previous anti-discriminatory laws with a single Act. It simplified the law, removing inconsistencies and making it easier for people to understand and comply with. It also strengthened the law in important ways, in order to help tackle discrimination and inequality. (Source: “Equality Act 2010: Specific duties to support the equality duty…. ” Government Equalities Office)

The specific duties of the Equality Act 2010 require the Service, as an Educational Provider, to publish information showing compliance with the Equality Duty, at least annually; and to set and publish equality objectives, at least every four years.

This document publishes information which demonstrates that the Service has due regard to the need to:-

- eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act;
- advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it; and
- foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

As per the Equality Act 2010 we will focus on persons who share a relevant protected characteristic. In terms of the Equality Act, these characteristics are: Age, Disability, Gender Reassignment, Pregnancy and Maternity, Ethnicity, Religion or Belief, Gender, and Sexual Orientation. The protected characteristic of marriage and civil partnership is not included in the education duties of the Act.

This summary provides information on the objectives of the Service’s Equality Scheme. These objectives are aligned with the overall strategic objectives of the Service.

Equality Objectives 2019-2023

Our Equality duty

Oldham Lifelong Learning Service strives to:

1. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act;
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
3. Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

In meeting our legal obligations under the Equality Act 2010 the Service publishes by January every year, information in respect of our achievements for the past year. In April 2015, the Service published objectives that enabled it to enhance equality of opportunity for all. These objectives have been reviewed and a set of objectives for 2019-2023 have been developed.

Engagement and Involvement

In developing these objectives, the Service engaged and consulted with all managers of the Service, all staff and learners via an open consultation on Moodle. In addition, the service completed group consultation sessions with learners in a cross section of classes and with a cross section of staff at a range of dedicated meetings. The Service also sought views from a range of partners. The outcome of the consultation has influenced our final decision on the agreed objectives.

Based on the data collected our agreed objectives for 2019 – 2023 are to:
