It's My Review!

About my life

www.blacc.me

The most important person at a review is -
YOU!

Reviews are about giving you the chance to say what you want to happen in your life.

My Name Is:

Older people's review booklet

This is your form – fill it in how you want to.

If there is anything you are not sure about – ask someone for help.

Where is my review going to be?

We want your review to be at a place where YOU feel safe and comfortable.

A place where you would like to have a review is:

Who's going to be there?

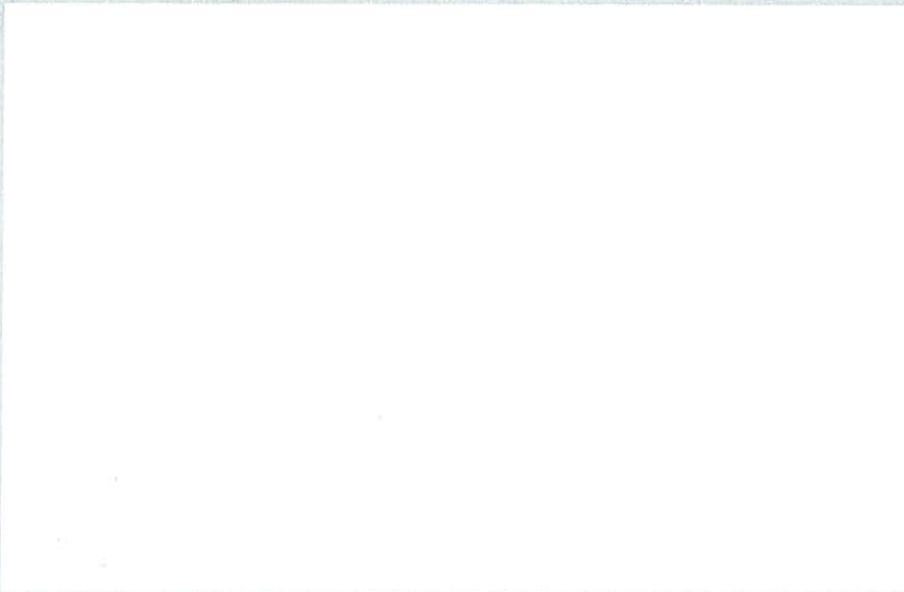

Before your review you need to talk to your social worker about who you do and don't want to come. These people are there to listen to you and support you.

Who would you like to be there:

Is there anybody you don't want there?

What could help me at my review?

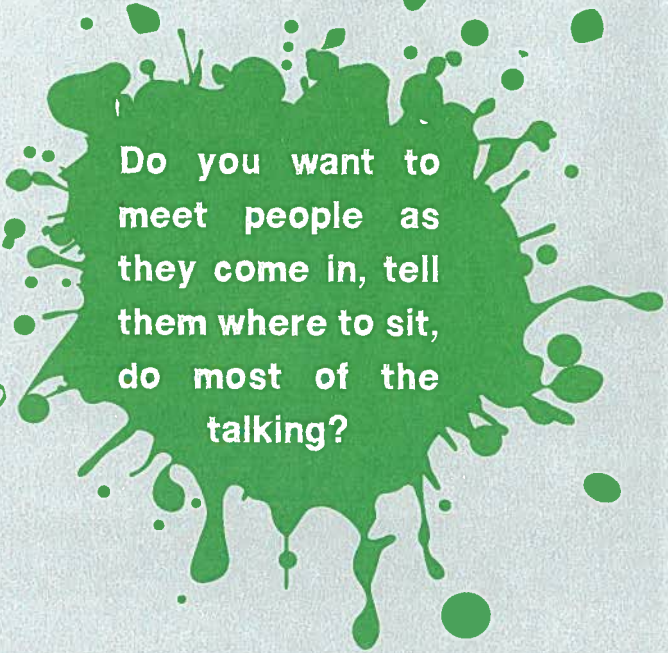

What could help you to enjoy your review (playing your music, having snacks and drinks there, wearing certain clothes)

How can I take part in my review?

Do you want to meet people as they come in, tell them where to sit, do most of the talking?

Where I live now

What's important to you about where you live?

How do you feel about the people you live with?

Is there anything you would change about where you live now?

Is there anything else you want to say about where you live?

My family and friends

Who is important in your life?

Do you see all the people you want to see?
