Legal basis for processing

The legal basis for processing and or sharing your personal information is article 6(1) (a); 6(1) (c) and 6(1) (e) of the General Data Protection Regulations.

We will process and share your personal information where:

- We have a legal obligation or it is in the public interest.
- You, or your representative have given consent.
- It is necessary for fraud prevention and the protection of public funds.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations, for example to administer the benefit schemes.

For more information regarding the legal basis for processing your information for the services supported by the Contact Centre (listed within Appendix 1) please refer to service specific privacy notices.

Information sharing/recipients

We may share personal information about you with the following organisations:

- The Unity Partnership Ltd: administers the Council Tax, Housing Benefit and Council Tax Reduction and Free School Meals services on behalf of the Council.
- Bulky Bobs: administers the collection of bulky household items on behalf of the Council.
- The Police: if they are trying to determine your current address for the detection of crime.
- Our software providers may have to access to our customer satisfaction and email management systems on occasion where there is a fault, to perform necessary upgrades, to host information on our behalf. Our current software providers are:
 - Blue Square Systems – we use Opinion 8 for customer satisfaction surveys and equality data collection for service users.
 - Mitel Multimedia – we use Mitel for the management of service requests received via email on behalf of several service areas.

We may share your information with other departments within the Council, if there is a legal basis to do so. These services currently include:

- Environment Health: to support housing enforcement activities in relation to your property subject to legal action due to disrepair or abandonment.

As well as information collected directly from you, we also obtain or receive information from:

- Letting Agents: to enable the Council to send the correct bill for Council Tax.
- Solicitors: who are acting on behalf of you or the Council.
- Landlords: to enable the Council to send the correct bill for Council Tax.
- Landlords: to enable the Council to pay the correct amount of Housing Benefit.

If you provide another person or organisation authority to discuss or to act on your behalf, we may share information with them. In all cases we would require evidence you had granted authority before any information is shared.

Data Transfers beyond European Economic Area

We do not transfer any of your personal information outside the European Economic Area ('EEA').

Automated Decisions

All the decisions we make about you involve human intervention.

Our Guide to Exercising Your Rights outlines the procedure to ask us for an automated decision to be reviewed by an appropriate officer. This can be found at www.oldham.gov.uk/yourdatarights

How long we keep your data

We will only keep your personal information for as long as it is required by us or other regulatory bodies in order to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or for other regulatory reasons. In most cases this will be a minimum of six years.

Where can I get advice

More information on how to seek advice in order to exercise your rights, raise a concern or complain about the handling of your personal information by the council can be found in the council's privacy notice which can be found at www.oldham.gov.uk/dataprotection
