Subject: Saddleworth Neighbourhood Plan - Comments from Mossley Town Council

Mossley Town Council is grateful for the opportunity to comment on the Saddleworth Neighbourhood Plan.

The formulation of a response was delegated to me as Clerk in consultation with the Chair (Councillor Dave Jones).

Councillor Jones has asked me to respond to the consultation on his behalf as follows:

“Thank you for inviting Mossley Town Council to comment on your new Neighbourhood Plan, which I congratulate you on. The tremendous hard work that has gone into it is clear to see and it lays out a powerful and exciting vision for Saddleworth - it looks fantastic!

Here in Mossley we have begun taking early steps to develop our own Neighbourhood Plan, and as part of that process it would be really good to come and draw on your experience of doing the same at some appropriate point. I am working hard to sustain the many existing brilliant aspects of our town, but also to realise the vast potential Mossley has to grow and prosper, particularly in the areas of tourism, culture, heritage and creativity.

It would be excellent if we could come and discuss our ideas with you and how we might build a more significant relationship and rapport with Saddleworth, which I again believe offers great untapped potential of mutual benefit.

Congratulations again, and best wishes from Mossley Town Council.”

On behalf of Councillor Dave Jones.

Michael Iveson
Clerk to the Town Council
