Informing parents

Do I have to inform parents about my concerns?

This Quick Guide to making a Child Protection referral is intended to act as a basic reference tool. Detailed Local Safeguarding Children Board procedures are available on the Oldham LSCB website.

What if I can’t see the parents to tell them?

You should inform parents about a referral which is to be made about their child unless any of these situations apply in which case the MASH will make the decision about when and how to inform parents.

- Sexual Abuse is suspected
- Organised or Multiple Abuse is suspected
- Factitious illness by proxy, fabricated or induced illness is suspected
- Contacting the parents would place the child, yourself or others at risk
- Child may be intimidated into changing, or preventing them from giving, information about the abuse
- Risk of forced marriage

If you have any doubts or need to seek further clarification you should contact MASH immediately.

Make a written record of your observations and actions.

Guidance

It is important at the outset to be as open and honest as possible with parents about the concerns, the possible need of a referral to MASH and the accompanying Child Protection Check that needs to be made. However an inability to inform parents should not prevent a referral being made.
Physical abuse

Does the child have a physical injury? No Yes

Is there a satisfactory explanation for the injury? Yes No

Does the child require urgent and immediate medical treatment? No Yes

Make appropriate arrangements for the child to receive medical attention and inform parents (unless it puts the child at risk).

Guidance

It may include not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or ‘making fun’ of what they say or how they communicate. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children.

These may include interactions that are beyond the child’s developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying (including cyberbullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Making the referral

What information will I be expected to provide?

Guidance

Listed below is the data that MASH needs to help them do their work. It would be helpful if you could give as much information as you have when making a referral.

- Full names and dates of birth of the child, carers and any other family members
- Child’s full address and telephone number
- Daytime address and contact telephone numbers for parents/carers
- Ethnic origin, religion and cultural background
- Reason for the referral, including description of any injuries observed, details of allegations made, discussions with the child or others, details of any witnesses. Including any relevant dates/times/places of alleged incidents
- Action taken and people contacted since concern arose
- Any immediate or impending danger to the child
- Previous concerns and any relevant background information
- Based on your knowledge of the child and family, you may well have an opinion about how the family are likely to react to the referral and any subsequent child protection enquiries, including any factors which may place the child or others at further risk (e.g. where there is domestic violence)
- Are the parents or child aware of the referral to MASH

Obviously, the more factual information you can provide the more speedily and efficiently MASH will be able to deal with the referral.

Regardless of whether you have this information or not you must make a referral if you have concerns for a child.

Make a written record of your observations and actions.
After making a referral

What happens after I’ve made the referral?

Examples of possible action following a referral are:

- Action taken to ensure the immediate safety of the child
- Make Child protection Enquiries (under Section 47 of the Children Act 1989)
- Decision is made if it is appropriate to call a Child Protection Conference
- Offer services to the family to relieve need or reduce risk
- Refer the family to another agency
- Take No Further Action

What can I do if I am unhappy about the outcome of my referral?

If you have any doubts or need to seek further clarification you should contact MASH.

You should contact the MASH Team Manager and discuss your concerns.

If after this discussion you are still not satisfied, you should put your concerns in writing to the Team Manager and send a copy to the relevant Children Services Service Manager and the Service Manager for Safeguarding.

Make a written record of your observations and actions.

Definition of domestic abuse

All children witnessing domestic violence are being emotionally abused, and this is recognised in recent legislation. From 31 January 2005, Section 120 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 came into force, which extends the legal definition of harming children to include harm suffered by seeing or hearing ill treatment of others, especially in the home (domestic violence).
